Explain why you wish to volunteer for our organization (write on reverse or attached additional page).

Opportunity for Participation

At the Boys of Belvedere, we believe that joining our Organization is a physical and emotional commitment. We encourage all applicants to become involved in all aspects of life in our organization and community. In furthering this ideal, we request that upon signing this application you commit to participate in organization at all levels. Please indicate which of these areas interest you by checking the appropriate box or boxes. Your participation will help strengthen the organization and our community and will make your Club experience more meaningful. You will be contacted by a Board member with more information.
